General provisions: The enrolment fee refers to one vehicle with a crew of maximum two people. The fee gives participants the right to full hospitality in the hotels and restaurants mentioned in the event program, which all participants must necessarily and strictly comply with. Any accommodation in hotels is exclusively in double rooms. By signing the present enrolment form, the participant declares that he is fully aware of the program of the rally and that he has carefully assessed the organization of the event from every point of view, i.e. the planned itineraries, the chosen locations for breaks and overnight stays, the parking options for vehicles and accommodation for passengers planned throughout the entire rally, and that he consequently intends to directly take on any risk and responsibility to this effect towards the RIAR, its bodies and the organizers chosen by the association, as well as towards all other participants, the people responsible and the sponsors of the rally, and finally towards all the chosen facilities and their staff for any damages that he should suffer directly or indirectly or any damage caused to the participating vehicle or to any principal or responsible drivers or passengers. All participants thus declare that they irrevocably waive the right to take any action or make any claim, even for reimbursement for the damage(s) in question, towards the RIAR and all the above mentioned subjects, and that they hold the RIAR and all the above mentioned subjects indemnified from any claims whatsoever set forth by the owners of the participating cars, or by the drivers, passengers, principals, or responsible persons in any action of any kind they should promote. Participants furthermore declare that they consider the RIAR and all the above mentioned subjects relieved from any responsibility for damages caused to products or third parties or to the property of third parties by the participant himself, by his drivers or passengers, or by his staff or employees during the event.
